

Girl Scouts of Washington Rock Council, Inc.

201 Grove Street East . Westfield, NJ 07090 . 908-232-3236 . westfieldnj.com/girlscouts

Who is the fearless Aunt Betty Frazee?

Discover her at...

Craze Frazee Day!

Sunday, June 1, 2008 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The Fanwood Scotch Plains Rotary Club
And Girl Scouts of Washington Rock Council, Inc.

Invite Junior Girl Scout Troops to come and learn about local colonial history and Aunt Betty Frazee.

During this fun filled day girls will:

- Tour local historical hot spots
- Craft a handkerchief doll
- Learn about historical decorating techniques
- Make delicious butter
- Play colonial era games and much more!

All girls participating in the program will earn the brand new Colonial Life and Times Patch. This patch was designed to bring awareness to the Aunt Betty Frazee Historical House located in Scotch Plains, NJ.

Details:

Where: Gather at the Cannonball House
1840 Front Street, Downtown Scotch Plains, next to Town Hall

Opening Date: May 1, 2008

Closing Date: May 26, 2008

Capacity: 50 girls (25 girl minimum)

Cost: $5 (patch included)

To Register: Please use the GSWRC Program Registration form.

Requirements:

All girls attending the event and wishing to earn the new patch are asked to:

- Bring 1 loaf of homemade baked bread to the event (parent/daughter activity)
- Attend the event in colonial costume*
- Visit <http://www.frazeehouse.org> to learn more about Aunt Betty

Recipes and costume information will be supplied in the program confirmation packet.

 Optional*

Questions?:

Registration Questions: Coleen Hay at 908-232-3236 x.1213 or chay@gswrc.com

Program Questions: Susannah Arnold at 908-232-3236 x.1212 or sarnold@gswrc.com

